

THE FOREST POST

Samanta Monthly - March 2020 Edition

We at Samanta Foundation have had a wonderful 2019-20. As we moved out of the forest areas to connect with the wider world and engage to achieve our goals it has been an encouraging journey so far. We would like to share the highlights with you all who have in one way or other been supporting us.

Community Books - A Step towards Localised Content

Publishing Our First Draft!

Samanta Foundation has been working towards developing localised content. The idea of doing so comes from the fact that Van Gujjar as a community have a spoken language called Gurjari. It is a mix of Dogri, Punjabi with some elements of Urdu and Arabic.

If Not Today, Then When?

Women Education And Preventive Health.

Women in our community have been our constant support system in increasing the enrolment in the school, maintaining regularity and also motivating us to do what we have been doing. We are working on setting up a women owned community learning centre.

Humans of Forest - I

RUBINA - The Girl Who Owns The Sky!

Rubina is a 16 year old young girl. Like many girls living inside the forest, she never went to school. At 4 years of age, she started helping her mother in household chores and also took care of her younger siblings.
