3.0 WHERE WE WORK

We work with the Forest dwelling, Tribals, Rural, Pastoral nomadic communities inhabiting areas in tribal, rural, remote geographies and ecosystems. We work across districts of Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh part of the lower Shivaliks range, near the Rajaji National Park and Tiger Reserve.

Current Location of Projects - Bahadrabad, Muzaffarabad blocks in Lower Shivalik range adjacent to Rajaji National Park and Tiger Reserve.

4.0 WHO WE WORK FOR

Uttarakhand has more than 65% of its areas covered with Forest ecosystems which comprise of National Parks, Tiger Reserves, UNESCO World heritage etc. Tribals, Forest Dwellers, Pastoral nomads, Other Traditional Forest Dwellers and rural populations have been inhabiting these regions for centuries. These communities have formed a unique relationship with the local ecosystems traditionally which is being altered since the last couple of decades. These people face challenges around access, availability, affordability of systemic services, resources, impacts of climate change etc.

We started our work in 2018 with - Van Gujjars and Taungyas who have lived for centuries as per the community/forest department records in the forests of the Shivalik and the Himalayan ranges in Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh and Himachal Pradesh. Over the last few decades, Van Gujjars like many other transhumance (pastoralist) communities have had to deal with rapid changes – political, economic and social – in the world around; the prolonged systemic inequities and injustices have deprived these communities of their fundamental human rights such as the – Right to access education. Taungyas are classified as a scheduled caste community as per the government records and were settled by the colonial rulers on the periphery of the forest. This was done to enable labour for the forest department in order to implement various activities of the department as per Nusrat (2012).

The focus communities for us is on -

1. Rural
2. Tribal
3. Remote
4. Pastoral Nomadic

In addition to this we intend to create a mandate for Youth from these communities in particular especially girls.

4.1 LANGUAGE

The prominent languages/dialects in the region are Hindi, Punjabi, Urdu, Arabic, Garhwali, Gojru/Gojri. There are tribal populations - Jaunsari and Buksa, Tharu (variants of Awadhi, Hindi and Urdu, Van Rawat/Raji (Raji). Over the years these languages have developed deeper connections with prominent regional languages like Hindi, Urdu Punjabi.

- The Van Gujjar speak 'Gojri' which is a mix of Dogri, Punjabi primarily with vocab support from Arbi and Urdu as well. There is no script to write the language and therefore can be recorded in the Devanagari script.
- The Taungyas speak Hindi (which is a local dialect) among themselves.
- Tribal dialects are spoken by communities as well - Jaunsari etc

4.2 REGIONAL - LIFESTYLE & LIVELIHOOD

Uttarakhand primarily relies on

- Tourism
- Agriculture
- Horticulture, Animal husbandry
- Industrial enterprises in lower districts

Rural, Tribal, Forest dwelling people survive on agriculture, horticulture, forest produce, animal husbandry.

Taungyas inhabit the forest peripheries and engage with daily wage labour, allied activities of the forest department and create products (ropes) out of forest produce (grass). Bhoksa, Tharu, Van Raji and Jaunsari populations occupy different districts of Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh and Nepal as well. Van Gujjar are pastoralists who traverse the Shivaliks from - Rajaji National Park in the lower shivaliks - to - Bugyals in the upper reaches of middle himalayas in Uttarkashi, Almora, Sirmaur, Kinnaur in Uttarakhand and Himachal. The general timelines for travel are from April-May to August-September each year.

4.4 CHALLENGES

4.4.1 Education

- Education among the children from the community varies as per location though a substantial set of children from the community have no to poor access, availability and affordability of education. The access is determined by the
 - Distance to school
 - Illiteracy in community
 - Parental engagement
 - Children engaged in household chores
 - Relative economic well being,
 - Sedentarization of the community over the years,
 - Other factors - context, culture etc.
- The women from the community have had a history of minimalistic participation in the livelihood engagements of the household as well as in the decision making . This has had an impact on the –
 - Relative status of adult literacy (ability to write one’s name etc),
 - Awareness about health, education etc
 - Opportunities to generate incomes by use of traditional skills – among men and women from the community.

The women from the community are well versed in a host of skills learned orally across generations – traditional art, natural resource management, livestock etc. We have formed groups of women and introduced practices to use the traditional skills to acquire economic empowerment as a group. We intend to use this in order to introduce interventions in the areas of health of women and children in particular.

5.2 YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

Education is a source of growth and development to shape the lives of all individuals and achieve a better society. The lack of access to opportunity has led to the sustained migration of youth from the State leaving it without youth to address its challenges.

When it comes to Youth, we believed there was a lack of space in the community for them to foster self-development and personal agency or any community-level platforms to structure their participation. There was a growing need to engage the youth through meaningful spaces to structure their dreams and garner a sense of personal agency towards action.

The Fellowship for Local Youth- Girls is a program that offers the ecosystem and structure for the youth to take up dreams they believe in to take one step at a time to make them a reality. The processes, support and mentorship offered as part of the program offers the requisite spaces for the Youth.

Areas of Intervention: Education, Health and Livelihood

Activities in the program:

1. Youth Mobilisation

6. Financial independence for the girls has become an integral part of their lives

7.0 CASE STUDY

1. Julekha: The woman with wings of fire

Julekha is one of the few educated girls from her community. She lived with her maternal grandparents in a rehabilitated Basti. She went to school and was always interested in studying. At the young age of 17 she got married into a grand joint family living in the buffer forest zone. The area had no access to electricity, piped water supply, schools or health services.

The early days of her marriage were difficult to adjust to a new ecosystem. Soon she was blessed with a daughter and her entire life revolved around her tiny one. She aspired for her daughter to be well educated and become financially independent. But her aspirations made her think of her reality where there are no schools or any other means to access education. She voluntarily started teaching the kids around her dera to spread awareness for educating children. . She then came across SAMANTA'S FLY

FELLOWSHIP.

She applied for the fellowship to set up a learning centre. The USP of her idea was to set up a library within the learning centre for the kids to enjoy learning through story books. Almost 30 students come to her learning centre and along with kids she started basic literacy for the women as well.

During local panchayat elections, Julekha contested for the ward member and she won with flying colours. She is a role model for many kids, young boys and girls. She rose like a phoenix from her grief of losing her infant son who was just 20 days old. She inspires, she fights, and is a courageous person, who created opportunity from within the challenges.

2. Aamna: The woman with zeal and vision.

Aamna is among few individuals with a positive, logical and practical approach to life. Some say leaders are born and many say leaders are created but a few believe in any of these. Aamna is an example of a leader who not only represents women from the rural and tribal communities but also every individual who lives away from the mainstream. She is a jack of all trades and also a master in every trade. She completed her Bachelors and now is working as a teacher in a Madrassa. She always wanted to work and earn for herself. During her college days, she learnt stitching and riding the bike. After her marriage also, she was always focused to do something. She tried her hand in stitching centre, learning centre and a daily needs shop. But somehow, things were not giving her the results she was expecting. She then applied for SAMANTA'S FLY fellowship and got selected. During the course of her time, she envisioned working towards girl child education. Today she teaches almost 60-70 girls from her community and plans to get them enrolled in the government primary school.

Aamna also contested for the position of ward member during the panchayat elections. She presented her manifesto demanding education, livelihood and improved health opportunities in her area. Currently she is getting quality of water tested in her area as water contamination is resulting in multiple health issues among children and women. She successfully runs a local needs shop with items such as stationary, bangles, candies, rice, sugar etc.

Aamna is an inspiration for everyone because of her positive attitude and hardworking approach. She is a believer and doer.
